The International Relief Column Fought Their Way Through.

The Yorktown Arrives at Che Foo-The Mission at Sen Chow Was Looted and the Missionaries Carried Off.

Washington, June 21.-A cablegram was received at the state department Wednesday morning from United States Consul Fowler at Che Foo. The consul says that no communication had been had with Pekin for six days past; that the mission at Sen Chow has been looted, but that the Chinese general carried the missionaries off in safety to an unknown place. The Chinese ships in the harbor have left for the south. The Russians continue to land troops at Taku.

A cablegram has been received at the navy department from Commander Taussig announcing the arrival of the Yorktown at Che Foo from Taku, where he went with dispatches from the department. Another cablegram is expected shortly from Taussig describing conditions at Taku.

St. Petersburg, June 21.-Vice Adm. Alexejeff, from Port Arthur, reporting the capture of the Taku forts, says the bombarding fleet was commanded by the Russian captain, Dubrowolski, as senior officer present. The Russian losses were two lieutenants killed, one severely and one slightly wounded, and 16 men killed and 67 wounded. The gunboat Giljak was seriously damaged by a shell below the water line and must be dosked for repairs. The gunboat Korejez cabin destroyed. The gunboat Bobr the engagement.
